

Nella collezione di lampade London la tradizione incontra suggestioni internazionali. Ne nascono lampade a sospensione, applique e plafoniere dove le trasparenze del vetro valorizzano la struttura in ferro anticato, creando inaspettati cambi di visione e atmosfere di sicuro impatto.

The London collection of lamps combines tradition with international influences. The result is Italian brass pendant lamps, wall lamps and ceiling lamps, where the transparent nature of glass enhances the antique iron fixture, creating unexpected changes of vision and striking atmospheres.
